

Ivan Veldhuizen
Executive Director of International Ministries
Converge

Ivan Veldhuizen has served as the Executive Director of International Ministries since January of 2012. With missionaries and ministry partnerships all around the world, Ivan's goal is create culture of global-mindedness within Converge's 1300+ churches. He is working towards mobilizing churches to see least- and un-reached people groups around the world come to Christ so generations alive today will see the fulfilment of the Great Commission.

Ivan also served in the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association for five years (1991-1996) as a field associate, bringing Dr. Graham's vision for evangelism to 24 different countries around the world. Ivan earned a Master of Divinity from Bethel Seminary and was a Converge pastor for 25 years. His churches have demonstrated significant progress in spiritual health, community impact and world missions.

Ivan is married to Susan and has three grown children and two granddaughters. They live in Orlando, Florida.
