

FEATURED SPEAKERS

Grace Jo

Speaking: 7 pm Friday, Nov. 4

Grace Jo was born in North Korea, a place where she almost starved to death as a child during the Great Famine of the 1990s. She, her mother, and older sister had to escape 3 times into China in search of food before finally finding freedom as refugees and experiencing Christians.

10 am-2 pm Friday, Nov. 4

KID'S & YOUTH FRIDAY FIELD TRIP

About 250 Christian students will gather for the Friday Field Trip, to experience God's heart for the nations as they visit exhibitors, attend workshops, and hear from Dr. Ben Sterciuc and Grace Jo. Register online.

Paul Estabrooks

Speaking: 11 am Saturday, Nov. 5

Paul's a storyteller par-excellence. He'll keep us captivated with real life reporting of persecution of Christians overseas ...stories from his 30 years as a missionary with Open Doors International. Guided by the Holy Spirit, Paul coordinated the delivery of one million Bibles into China.

11 am-3:30 pm Friday, Nov. 4

FRIDAY PASTORS' & MISSION LEADERS' WORKSHOP "DISCIPLING CITIES & TOWNS" BY SATURATE THE SOUND

This free workshop includes a box lunch and is presented by Saturate the Sound. It will be sharing about the emergence of City Gospel Movements around the globe and offer their best thinking around starting and supporting dense city networks focused on disciple-making.

Dr. Ben Sterciuc

Speaking: 4:30 pm Saturday, Nov. 5

Born and raised in Romania, Ben escaped Communist Romania in June of 1989, after experiencing persecution and imprisonment. After spending a year and a half in a refugee camp in Austria, where Ben brought his wife Lia and son Flavius from Romania, they emigrated to the USA.

4 pm Friday to 6:30 pm Saturday

MISSION EXHIBITORS

Exhibits by many Christian mission organizations make Missions Fest a fun and challenging learning experience. They also help make Missions Fest possible. Contact exhibitors@missionsfestseattle.org. Thank you!
