

PERSECUTION AS A THEME?

As in past times, there has always been a battle between good and evil. Often evil consists of mocking, threats, physical injury, isolation, starvation, loss of a job and even death, when it comes to conflict with Christ's way. We have long seen such treatment in third world countries and that has increased, but today, we are experiencing some of these abuses here in America and even in the Northwest. Speakers and Seminar/Workshops bring these examples to light and suggest how one might respond to them. Prayer is a key.

Missions Fest Seattle started in 2006 and has become an annual free gathering of 1500 to 2000 people. The conference typically features 3-4 speakers, 50+ seminars, 60+ exhibitors, and is sponsored by 50+ Seattle area churches. This is all for the purpose of better understanding and then responding in obedience to Jesus' command in Matthew 28:19-20 when He said we were to "go (SCATTER) into all the world and make disciples of all nations..." PARTNERING CHURCHES

We invite churches throughout Western Washington to join in a continued effort to introduce Jesus to those yet outside a relationship with Him. Every financial donating congregation is considered a church sponsor. Contact: partner@missionsfestseattle.org.

PRIVATE DONORS

Missions Fest Seattle is a non-profit IRS 501(3) organization, and thus can issue tax deductible donation receipts for earmarked gifts to this conference. If your company, family, or group would like to support this outreach financially, please send an email to giving@missionsfestseattle.org. Your contributions help make this conference possible for many.
